

The People's Movie Night @ Wooden Shoe Books

Every Saturday Night at 7:30PM, Come to Wooden Shoe Books for A Free Political Movie! Every Movie Goer Gets a Cup o' Popcorn!

March

Saturday March 1st 7:30 North Country

When Josey Aimes returns to her hometown in Northern Minnesota after a failed marriage, she needs a good job. A single mother with two children to support, she turns to the predominant source of employment in the region -the iron mines. (126 minutes)

Saturday March 8th 7:30PM Camden 28

The Camden 28 explores how and why 28 individuals intentionally placed themselves at risk of arrest and imprisonment while protesting the war in Vietnam. The Camden 28 is a story about a potent form of dissent that has special relevance to our current political climate. (83 minutes)

Saturday March 15th 7:30PM Occupation 101

A thought-provoking and powerful documentary film on the current and historical root causes of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Unlike any other film ever produced on the conflict 'Occupation 101' presents a comprehensive analysis of the facts and hidden truths surrounding the never ending controversy and dispels many of its long-perceived myths and misconceptions. (90 minutes)

Saturday March 22nd 7:30PM The Bubble

When a young Israeli named Noam (Ohad Knoller) falls for a handsome Palestinian he meets while working at a check-point in Tel Aviv, he recruits his roommates Yelli and Lulu to help find a way for the two to stay together. This poignant film offers a glimpse at life inside the tumultuous borders of Israel, where everyday people.

Saturday March 29th 7:30PM Rana's Wedding

Palestinian director Hany Abu-Assad finds love among the brutalities of war in this heart-tugging drama about one woman's quest to be reunited with her beloved. In less than a day, she must wend her way through war-torn neighborhoods, sinister soldiers, desperate residents and lost citizens so she can finally rest in her boyfriend's arms. (90 minutes)

April

Saturday April 5th 7:30 PM Private

A drama inspired by actual events, set in the isolated home of a Palestinian family living halfway between a Palestinian village and an Israeli settlement. After the family home is seized by invading Israeli soldiers, patriarch Mohammad must find a way to protect what's his without violating his nonviolent principles.

Saturday April 12th 7:30 PM Arna's Children

Arna Mer Khamis was a legendary activist for the rights of the Palestinian people who founded a theatre group at a refugee camp, teaching children to express themselves through acting. Her son Juliano, a director for the group, filmed Arna working with the children over a 6-year period.

Saturday April 19th 7:30 PM Kamp Katrina

Kamp Katrina follows the in-depth lives of a small group of people who have taken refuge in a garden transformed into a tent city by an extraordinary New Orleans couple, Ms. Pearl and her husband, David. Kamp Katrina uses tragedy as a tool to clarify and illuminate abandonment and madness of their lives.

Saturday April 26th 7:30PM Emma Goldman: An Exceedingly Dangerous Woman

A noted Russian-born woman who became a leader of the anarchist movement upon immigrating into the United States, Goldman subsequently earned such nicknames as "Red Emma" and "Queen of the Anarchists" for her outspoken vocal attacks on the government and staunch opposition to World War I. (90 minutes)

Wooden Shoe Books and Records, run by an all-volunteer anarchist collective since 1976, is located at 508 s. 5th street. 215-413-0999. sabot@woodenshoebooks.com WE ACCEPT DONATIONS!