

The People's Movie Night @ Wooden Shoe ★ Books

Every Saturday Night at 7:30PM, Come to Wooden Shoe Books for A Free Political Movie! Every Movie Goer Gets a Cup o' Popcorn!

May

Saturday May 3rd 7:30 Young, Jewish, and Left

A celebration of diversity, Young Jewish and Left weaves queer culture, Jewish Arab history, secular Yiddishkeit, anti-racist analysis, and religious/spiritual traditions into a multi-layered tapestry of Leftist politics. (55 minutes)

Saturday May 10th 7:30PM Sacco and Vanzetti

The story of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, two Italian immigrant anarchists who were accused of a murder in 1920, and executed in Boston in 1927 after a notoriously prejudiced trial. (80 minutes)

Saturday May 17th 7:30PM The Wind That Shakes The Barley

Two brothers fight in the Irish War of Independence and win against the notorious Black and Tans. But peace is short-lived and when one faction of the freedom-fighters accepts a treaty with the British that is regarded as unfair by the other faction, a civil war ensues, pitting Irishmen against Irishmen, brothers against brothers... (127 minutes)

Saturday May 24th 7:30PM Vera Drake

An irrepressibly hopeful housecleaner in 1950s London named Vera Drake (Imelda Staunton, Antonia and Jane, Shakespeare in Love) mothers everyone around her, from her own family to helpless shut-ins and lonely men living in tiny, isolated apartments. None of these people know that Vera also helps young women get rid of unwanted pregnancies, until the police appear and tear her world apart. (125 minutes)

May 31st KOYAANISQATSI- Life Out Of Balance

Koyaanisqatsi contrasts the tranquil beauty of nature with the frenzied hum of contemporary urban society. (86 minutes)

Wooden Shoe Books and Records, run by an all-volunteer anarchist collective since 1976, is located at 508 s. 5th street. 215-413-0999. sabot@woodenshoebooks.com WE ACCEPT DONATIONS!

June

AIDS Awareness Month and the 20th Anniversary of Philly ACT-UP

Saturday June 7th 7:30 PM Pandemic: Facing AIDS

From people like Sergei and Lena (Russia), young parents whose previous drug use has left them HIV-positive, to Alex (Brazil), a 27-year-old gay man who is trying to rebuild his health and get back to living a full and productive life, their stories are both heartbreaking and uplifting, providing a window into a world that so many of us have never fully understood. (113 minutes)

Saturday June 14th 7:30 PM Pills Profits Protest: Chronicle of the Global Aids Movement

This documentary examines critical junctures in the battle for access to HIV treatment as the poorest and most marginalized individuals confront larger powers, including governments, corporate bodies and a multinational drug industry that is motivated by profit. (60 minutes)

Saturday June 21st 7:30 PM Voices from the Front

Voices From The Front is a powerful distillation of pictures and words from events organized to change public consciousness, expose the failure of the health care systems, and challenge government inaction and neglect concerning AIDS. (90 minutes)

PLUS: ACT-UP Philly Panel to Discuss the Current State of Aids Activism!

Saturday June 28th 7:30PM Daybreak

The play is a taut, two-character allegory about AIDS that takes place in one dismal room on Manhattan's Lower East Side. New York City is a 1984-style fascist nightmare steeped in poverty and ridden with plague. (90 minutes)